National Important Folk Cultural Properties

4 Wakayama's House

A valuable piece of folklore, as it has the characteristics of both the "steep rafter roof (Gassho style)" which was original in Shirakawa and the "hipped gable roof" in Shohkawa.

(Shohkawa-machi, 1751)

6 Tanaka's House

A typical old farmhouse relocated from near here. Marks made by using Chona (Adze) are beautifully remaining on pillars and floors.

(Takayama City, mid of 18c)

12 Taguchi's House

The owner of this house was the head of the village for several generations. Meetings were often held in here, so most of the rooms were designed to make one big room as moving the sliding doors.

(Gero City, 1809)

21 Yoshizane's House

Only this house in the village avoided collapsing down when the big earthquake occurred in 1858. It is said that "the forked pillar" used in this house prevented it from a big damage.
